Senate Digs Up Story Of Red Menace

By DON WHITEHEAD

Washington, July 22 (P)—Senate investigators dug deeper today into the story of two state department officials that Communist employees of the United Nations are undermining U. S. security.

Subcommittee staff members called for more information from Robert C. Alexander, assistant chief of the department's visa division, who first made the charges last week.

Alexander was recalled to testify after Secretary of State Marshall told a news conference he knows of no threat to American security by foreign agents who might be employed by U. N.

The surprise charges about activities of U. N.'s foreign employees came from Alexander and William Harlow, chief of the state department's diplomatic visa section. They had been called to testify at a general hearing into the immigration and naturalization laws.

The subcommittee's staff showed aside other matters to concentrate on the reported subversive actions of U. N. workers who enjoy immunity under a United Nations agreement.

Alexander said the aliens arrive in this country under the international organization immunities act and "we can't get rid of them because no country will take them back" when they quit or are fired.

He said the United States has information on "several hundred" U. N. employees, who are classified as "undesirable." "The consuls don't like to issue visas," he said. "They know that these people are coming here for a purpose not compatible with the interests of the United States. x x x I am talking about the persons who use the United Nations as a front or cover or blind for carrying on subversive activities against this country and where we have to go and spread on the record all of the proof in order to stop it."

Marshall Tito Still Holding His Ground

Cominform Attacked For Yugoslav War Plot

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, July 22. (P)—Premier Marshal Tito says the Russian-led Cominform conspired to foment civil war in Yugoslavia and almost succeeded.

Two Yugoslav Communist leaders he purged formed the spearhead of the move by "anti-party persons," Tito said last night. He identified them as Straton Zujovic, former finance minister, and Andrija Hebrang, former minister of light industry and one-time president of the nation's planning commission.

Tito implied that he now has full control of the situation. In an eight-hour speech to 2,300 wildly cheering Yugoslav Communist delegates attending a party congress, Tito did not back down an inch from the position he has held since the Cominform assailed him. He pledged that the party will continue to follow the line he and his partisan leaders have set for the complete socialization of Yugoslavia.

Blitz By Russians Viewed As Unlikely

Newspaper Says Soviets Have No Yen For War

Berlin, July 22 (P)—The French-licensed newspaper Der Kurier claims Russia could not launch a blitz against the western zones of Germany even if she wanted to. "Dismantled rail lines east of the Elbe and deteriorated bridges would hold up the advance of motorized columns," the paper added.

It added that the Russians would be hampered by long communication lines, and quoted German railway men as saying that Soviet supply trains still are harassed by bands of guerrillas in the former Polish Ukraine.

Der Kurier also quoted returning German war prisoners as saying the Russian people had no zest for war and that the Soviet army in Germany was "worried about the relatively great number of deserters."

Following up recent Russian offers to feed all Berlin, the Soviet-controlled Berlin radio said last night that food for western Berliners would be ready for distribution Aug. 1 in the western sectors. The Soviet-licensed news agency said that Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, Russian commander, had agreed to supply electric power for a manufacturing plant in the British sector. Earlier the Russians had hinted through their controlled press that they were willing to furnish electric power for the entire city.

Car With 2 Fronts Driven to Coast By Michigan Boys

Des Moines, Iowa, July 22 (P)—Three California-bound Michigan boys gave patrolman Frank Manny a fright when they rolled into town.

Manny saw a car with two front ends and two steering wheels with a man at each one coming down the street toward him.

Recovering from the shock, he stopped the contraption. Dick Wood, 20, Baldwin, Mich., Charles Breed, 21, and Charles' brother Sterling, 19, both of Paw Paw, patiently explained what it was.

"We've just fixed up a car to look modernistic," they said. The zoot effect had been produced by welding front ends of two 1929 Fords together. It looks like two cars but has only one motor, and only one steering wheel works.

F. R. Buechner Takes Position As City Manager At Flint

Flint, Mich., July 22 (P)—Mayor Edward J. Viall announced today that Frank Robert Buechner, 52, of Hamilton, O., has accepted an offer to become city manager of Flint. Buechner resigned recently from a similar post in Hamilton. He served previously at Gladstone, Mich. The city commission will formally approve Buechner's appointment at its next session and set a date for his induction into office. The offer to Buechner was made July 20 following approval by seven of the nine commissioners, two being absent.

Ohio Reformatory Kidnapers Murder Trio In Cornfield

Mansfield, O., July 22 (P)—Police studied autopsy reports and fingerprint gleanings today in a search for clues to the brutal kidnap-slayings of a Mansfield reformatory executive, his wife and 21-year-old daughter.

Bodies of the three, John E. Niebel, 50, superintendent of the reformatory farm for 20 years; his wife, 52, and their daughter, Phyllis, were found yesterday in a cornfield, eight hours after they were kidnaped.

Richland County Prosecuting Attorney Theodore Lutz said this morning that as yet, he had "no information to connect the crime to any definite suspects."

Authorities concentrated on Coroner D. C. Lavender's autopsy reports, and those of fingerprint experts who spent hours at the Niebel home and the spot where the bodies were found.

Sheriff Frank E. Robinson said experts of the London (O.) prison farm's mobile crime laboratory had uncovered some fingerprints in the home where the Niebels apparently had been routed from their beds by the kidnapers.

Coroner Lavender reported Niebel had been hit with a blunt instrument, but that the blow was not hard enough to kill. He had been shot through the top of the head.

The daughter had been shot through the top of the head on the left side, and the bullet lodged under her right eye.

Mrs. Niebel had been shot through the head and in the abdomen. Coroner Lavender said "We are investigating the possibility that the daughter had been criminally attacked."

It also was determined, authorities said, that two guns had been used in the slayings. They held one .25 caliber bullet and one .38 caliber bullet, taken from the bodies. The coroner said an effort will be made to locate the other bullet.

The refugees, headed by Capt. John Rosenberg, 65-year-old master of the 64-foot ketch named the "Gundel," will sail today for Boston, where a U. S. immigration official said his office probably would make an investigation.

Capt. Rosenberg said his party had sailed from Dover, England, with only a wrist watch and sextant to guide them. They originally had fled Soviet-controlled Latvia to Sweden, where they lived for four years and pooled their resources to acquire the ketch for $12,000.

Hot, Humid Spell Eased in Midwest Chicago, July 22 (P)—Most of the Midwest got relief from the hot, humid weather today. A drop in temperatures was reported from the New England states westward through Great Lakes region into the northern plains states.

Showers and thundershowers were reported in several areas, while a flash flood hit Lancaster, Ohio. Rain fell in Michigan, the Ohio and lower Missouri valleys.

Hourglass Figure Latest for Diapers Detroit, July 22 (P)—The hourglass figure is the latest thing in diapers.

The National Institute of Diaper Service, holding its convention here, introduced its new super-absorbent, no-fold "diaper of distinction" yesterday.

Fourteen-month-old Paul Ashley modeled the new version of three-cornered pants.

Clay Gives His Report, Top Secret

New Protest To Kremlin Studied By Allies

(By The Associated Press)

President Truman said today he thinks the chances of world peace are excellent.

Diplomatic sources in Moscow said the chances for a four power meeting on Germany seem brighter now than at any time since the Berlin crisis began five weeks ago, when the Russians blocked rail, road and barge routes.

The Moscow dispatch said Russia probably will agree if the U. S., Britain or France proposes such talks.

General Sees Truman Mr. Truman declined to comment on the Berlin crisis. He will talk later in the day with Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. Military Governor of Germany, who was recalled for consultation.

The President endorsed fully the statement of Secretary of State Marshall that the U. S. intends to exhaust every resource of diplomacy to solve the Berlin question and prevent World War III, Marshall said also the U. S. "will not be coerced or intimidated."

A British official said today the three western powers have agreed tentatively to widen negotiations with Russia over blockaded Berlin to include several other German problems.

But in Washington, there was little favorable response to reports from London that Britain might be willing to reopen the whole question of Germany's future and negotiate with the Russians in a four-power conference.

Blockade Is Key In both capitals, officials expressed the conviction that removal of the rail, road and barge blockade the Russians imposed five weeks ago would be a key condition to discussion.

Escaped Scottsboro Convict Not Caught

Negro Still At Large In Alabama Break Montgomery, Ala., July 22 (P)—A 25-year-old Negro, Haywood Patterson, one of the defendants in the famed "Scottsboro" rape case, was still at large today after his escape from Kilby prison.

Patterson was serving 75 years for his part in the rape incident in 1931. Of eight Negroes who escaped within a few hours after the break, three others are still at large with Patterson.

It was Patterson's second escape since he was sentenced in 1937 after six years of court battles. Originally, he and eight other Negroes were convicted of raping two white women on a freight train near Scottsboro, Ala., and were sentenced to death.

Patterson had been punished 15 times for violation of prison rules. Four times he was slashed other prisoners with knives.

Patterson and the others who escaped with him made their break for freedom from a truck returning them to prison from a work detail on the prison farm. A guard fired at the Negroes as they fled through a corn field, but failed to halt them.

Honeymoon Held Up 5 Years To Serve Out Term In Prison Los Angeles, July 22 (P)—It was honeymoon deferred today for Paul Richard Judd, 21, and his bride, Mary Lee Davis, 20.

They were married yesterday in Superior Judge Walter S. Gates' chambers. The bride was nattily attired in a sharkskin ensemble. The groom wore handcuffs. He's going to San Quentin prison to serve five years to life for burglary.

"I'll wait for him," said new Mrs. Judd. She plans to continue working as a waitress while waiting.

Monken Meets Sad End in Ann Arbor Ann Arbor, Mich., July 22 (P)—The little Rhesus monkey that had startled citizens here since his escape a week ago from University Hospital, came to a sad end last night.

Police summoned to a private residence by the owners who saw the monkey in a nearby tree, ended its career with a shotgun blast.

The monkey left the experimental laboratories at the hospital Saturday by way of a fifth floor window and a handy tree. Until last night, police were unable to catch up with the little animal.

Teen-Agers Protest Curb On Volunteers For Military Duty

Washington, July 22 (P)—Complaints from many 18-year-olds that they are being squeezed out of a chance to volunteer for military service seemed likely today to get attention at the special session of Congress.

Staff aides of Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Armed Services Committee said he already has asked Secretary of Defense Forrestal for a report on possible changes in the Selective Service Act.

Thousands of the teen-agers jammed recruiting stations yesterday to sign up for a one-year term in the armed forces, thus avoiding a draft call for 21 months service when they turn 19. However, Congress said only 161,000 may be accepted during the next year—and there are an estimated 1,200,000 in this age bracket now.

Gurney earlier opposed the Army plan of taking the volunteers on an equal monthly basis on the grounds this will cause many to lose two years of schooling. He suggested instead that most of the 18-year-olds be accepted during the summer vacation period.

Quota Inadequate Forrestal himself wrote Gurney last April 22 that he considered the 18-year-old quota system an inadequate compromise for the universal military training program which Congress pigeonholed.

Gurney's committee aides gave these reasons for the 161,000 ceiling on the teen-ager volunteers: 1. Only $500,000,000 was approved by Congress for the one-

Dewey Advisor Goes To Paris With U. N.

Invitation From Truman Accepted By Dulles

BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER Lake Success, July 22 (P)—John Foster Dulles, foreign affairs advisor to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, will be a delegate to the United Nations assembly in Paris, informed sources said today.

Disclosure that Dulles had decided to accept an invitation from President Truman to be a member of the United States delegation made it certain the bi-partisan foreign policy would be continued in the U. N.

If Gov. Dewey is elected president in November, Dulles is widely regarded as his choice for secretary of state. Dulles conferred with Dewey about going to Paris and the Republican presidential candidate gave his approval, it was said.

Mr. Truman is expected to appoint the U. S. delegation during the special session of Congress. Secretary of State Marshall is slated to head the delegation.

It was reported here that other top delegates would be Warren R. Austin chief U. S. delegate to the U. N. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. Mrs. Roosevelt was a delegate to the first U. N. assembly in London and to the two regular assembly meetings held in New York. Each U. N. nation may have five delegates and five alternates.

Cheapening of Peso Planned In Mexico Mexico City, July 22 (P)—Mexico decided today to cheapen the peso. She has lost a long fight to keep it at 485 to the U. S. dollar where it has been pegged since 1940.

Mexico is an exporter and hopes to increase her sales abroad. A cheapened peso will help her to compete in the world market.

More pesos for the dollar also may attract more U. S. tourists—if the government can keep prices at their present levels. Postwar tourists have complained that prices here are too high. Many prospective travelers have stayed away.

Ford Workers Settle For 13-Cent Raise To Erase Strike Threat

Detroit, July 22 (P)—A 13-cent an hour wage increase for 116,000 CIO production workers today erased a national strike threat against the Ford Motor Company.

Climaxing more than 21 hours of nearly continuous negotiation, the CIO United Auto Workers also won increases in premium pay, vacation improvements, and a group insurance plan revision.

The union estimated these "fringe" benefits would total an additional 3 1/2 to 4 cents an hour. The UAW-CIO also estimated the annual increased cost to Ford of the new contract at $32,000,000. The firm made no estimate.

Vice President John S. Bugas of the Ford company said the new agreement included the same wage offer that the union turned down a week ago, "plus a few additional fringe adjustments" worked out in our negotiating sessions.

The fringe concessions which Bugas mentioned included increases in premium pay for afternoon shift to seven cents from five cents an hour; increases in midnight shift premium pay to 10 cents from five cents; and adjustment of the seniority rules governing vacations.

The joint announcement also mentioned an improved group insurance plan "to which the company would pay increased amounts as its share."

There were other contract changes of a technical nature.

The 13-cent an hour increase brings the Ford average hourly production wage rate to between $1.65 and $1.66.

Sigler Urged To Fire Black In GOP Scrap

BY JAMES A. O. CROWE

Lansing, July 22 (P)—The Republican party in Michigan was seething with internal warfare today.

The state central committee demanded the resignation of Attorney General Eugene F. Black, and urged Governor Sigler to fire him if he did not resign.

Sigler brought wild cheers from committee members when he promised a ding-dong battle against "machine politics" and predicted his victory in the Sept. 14 primary.

Boy Shoots Woman For Spending Money California Lad, 11, Flees After Killing Friend

Martinez, Calif., July 22 (P)—"I saw other kids with money, and I didn't see why I shouldn't have some, too."

That, Sheriff James N. Long said today, was the reason 11-year-old Thomas Edwin Harrington gave for shooting to death Mrs. Daisy Ebling yesterday.

But, frightened, he took no money. Walsfield Taylor, deputy district attorney, said Tommy made a statement admitting the shooting. He said he would charge the boy with first degree murder. The maximum penalty is life imprisonment because of his age.

Tommy is one of nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrington, who came to California from McAlester, Okla., three years ago. Mrs. Ebling, 42, was killed when she answered a knock at the rear of her grocery store in nearby Mountain View.

The sheriff quoted the boy: "She was a very nice woman. She used to give me comic books and soda pop."

Tommy wore a red shirt and blue jeans and tied a handkerchief over his face, his statement said, and continued:

As Mrs. Ebling answered his knock, Tommy said, "Stick 'em up. This is a holdup."

She said, "Oh, that doesn't fool me. I know who you are." Mrs. Ebling was shot then, with a .22 caliber rifle.

Tommy, suddenly frightened, abandoned his robbery plan—and fled.

Detroit Patrolman Wounded by Gunmen Has Chance To Live

Detroit, July 22 (P)—Casimer Kaliszewski, rookie patrolman shot down by two unknown gunmen early Tuesday, gained a little today in his fight for life.

Police hoped they might be able to question him soon for a description of his assailants and details of the shooting.

Meanwhile another police officer, 31-year-old patrolman John Wrysch, was in serious condition in Receiving hospital with throat wounds inflicted in a knife battle.

Wrysch, summoned to a west side tavern where a patron was threatening other customers with a knife, grappled with the man and was wounded in the fight. Police held his assailant, whom they identified as Charles B. Green, 35, on an open charge.

Chimpanzee Scares Battle Creek Lady

Battle Creek, Mich., July 22 (P)—"Kip," 140-pound carnival chimpanzee, was back in his cage today after 27 hours of freedom which created plenty of excitement.

His escape ended when he "dropped in" at the home of Mrs. Clifford Owenshire, about a mile from the carnival grounds. Mrs. Owenshire's screams attracted a passing motorist who led the tired and docile chimpanzee from the house and returned it to its owners.

Hunting Prohibited Means 'No Fishing' At Japanese Palace

Tokyo, July 22 (P)—"Hunting prohibited" signs bristled today from the banks of the Moat surrounding the imperial palace.

Police explained that the "hunting prohibited" signs actually meant: "No fishing allowed."

But, they added, "no fishing allowed" signs lacked force—but "hunting prohibited" signs meant just what they said to Japanese carp fishermen, who have been bagging a few in the once sacred stream.

SHORTAGE CLOSES PLANT Toledo, O., July 22 (P)—Willis-Overland Motors will lay off about 7,000 workers tomorrow in a temporary suspension of production caused by a shortage of cam shafts, the firm said today. A strike in a supplier plant caused the shortage.

The committee and local finance chairmen gathered yesterday to consider charges made by Black last week of irregularities in fund raising activities of the party.

A session, spiked repeatedly with charges that Black was acting as "the misguided tool of would-be bosses," was climaxed with a resolution demanding his resignation.

The resolution was amended from the floor to ask Sigler to remove him if he continued in office. This amendment was protested vainly by Secretary of State Fred M. Alger Jr., who said it put Sigler "on the spot."

Attorney Branded Menace Sigler commented later: "I shall respectfully consider any action taken by the state central committee and exercise my own judgment as to what should be done."

The resolution was adopted after Sigler left the meeting. He had said he had been urged to remove Black, and added, "I could remove him, but I am not going to. Black is an elected official, and the people must learn that when they elect a person to office they are responsible."

The committee's letter told Black, "You are a menace to good government."

"Because of the unseemly conduct of your important office * * *," it continued, "we believe you have outlived any usefulness you may have had * * *."

The letter declared that Black had a consistent record of reversal of your opinions by the supreme court, had quarreled with and questioned the fitness of the supreme court, the Wayne circuit bench, other state officials, the governor and the legislature.

It said his present attack on party finances was "activated by private, personal and political motives other than the best interests of your party and of your state."

Tourists Slack Up On Spending Spree Plushier Vacation Spots Avoided By Travelers

BY FRANK PITMAN Denver, July 22 (P)—The Rocky Mountains are seeming this summer with as many tourists as ever but the postwar spending spree has slackened in the plushier vacation resorts.

Pleasure hunters who lolled around the swank mountain lodges a year ago are reveling this season in the spartan joys of camping out under the stars or sleeping in their automobiles and trailers.

"Travelers into Colorado have less money because of higher costs at home," the Denver Visitors Bureau said today. A survey of officials in six mountain states showed heavy travel but less spending than during the 1947 record season.

The Yellowstone and Rocky Mountain National Parks, two of the favorite public vacation centers report sharply increased attendance over last year's all time high.

But luxurious hotels and lodges on the fringe of the national wonders report less business.

NO GORILLA Mt. Clemens, (P)—Officers investigated reports of a 8-year-old boy that he had seen a huge gorilla peering into his room. Their conclusion: "Reading too many comic books."

Fifth Test Well For Ranney Unit Is Being Drilled

The fifth in a series of test wells to determine the location of the Ranney well unit in Escanaba is now being drilled near the lake shore by the park bridge. It was reported today by the city manager.

Previous test drills were made on the city property near the Delta Hardware, on the end of sand point, and on the inside and outside area adjacent to the bridge.

The city manager reported to the council in special session yesterday that the previous estimate of 6,000,000 gallons has not been fulfilled by test drillings and that the Ranney Water Supplies, Inc. company will probably guarantee a flow of 3,000,000 gallons per day in this area.

The tests are made with six-inch casings and should be completed by the end of next week according to the city manager. If these tests continue to provide favorable, a 12-inch casing will be set up and the flow of water from it will be measured.

The Ranney well system is designed to collect surface water from a lake or other body of water filtered through sand and gravel. The wells consist of a 13-foot casing and a series of collectors jutting out in several directions below the filler beds of sand and gravel.

The cost of the well is estimated at $85,000 in contract, at a cost of nearly a half million dollars for installation of a filter plant.

"Although the company may guarantee a flow of say 3,000,000 gallons a day, the flow itself will be greater than that," the city manager reported.

New Western Union Manager Arrives

L. E. Briggs, who has been manager of the Western Union office in Rhinelander, Wis., for the past three years, has arrived here to assume the position of manager of the Escanaba office of the Western Union.

Mr. Briggs succeeds John B. Gherna, who will remain on the local staff of the telegraph company as an operator.

The new local manager of the Western Union is a native of Oshkosh, Wis., and has been employed by the Western Union for 16 years. During the war he was stationed at Truax Field, Madison, as an airways wire operator.

His wife and two children, Brian, 6, and Kathleen, 3, will move to Escanaba later when housing accommodations are secured here.

Mr. Briggs is a member of the Blue Lodge and Chapter of the Masonic order.

Novena
A Novena to St. Anne is being conducted by the Franciscan Fathers, with masses at 6 and 8 a. m. and evening services at 7:30 in St. Francis Xavier's church at Spalding. It began July 17 and will end July 25.

Stand Of Timber Good

Earl (Pete) Dubois planted approximately 8000 young spruce and balsam trees early last spring on his farm, just north of Spalding. Six thousand are trees of a few years growth removed from local areas, while the balance is nursery stock seedlings. The continued drought caused the loss, through drying, of only a small percentage. Dubois has been supplying Christmas trees to the large city markets for years and is now trying to start a home-raised project by planting trees in rows and giving them the same start as the cultivated shade and fruit trees.

Birthday Party
Henry Hansen celebrated his 79th birthday anniversary on Sunday at his home in Powers. Here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Hancock and Wallie Hansen of Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Hansen and family of Seattle.

Negroes Advised To Avoid Serving On Draft Boards

New York, N. Y. (AP)—Negroes have been urged by A. Philip Randolph not to serve on U. S. selective service boards.

Randolph, national chairman of the League for Non-Violent Civil Disobedience Against Military Segregation, said Sunday in a statement that "Negroes would serve no useful purpose by accepting invitations to become members of selective service boards under the Jim Crow draft act which Congress passed and President Truman signed."

Upper Peninsula Features Carried By July Hiawathian

The current issue of The Hiawathian, now on all U. P. newsstands, continues the high standard of interest established in the first issue last month. The magazine's features for July come from all parts of the Peninsula.

The lead story, "The Air Age Reaches Lake Superior," tells in pictures and charts just what air transport facilities are now available throughout the Peninsula. To write it, the editors traveled the flight routes, taking pictures and notes. U. P. air travelers are shown in aircraft enroute south.

The second article, "What Are We—Politically?" traces the voting trends of the Peninsula, since 1920, as it has swung from one major party to another, and makes a prediction for 1948.

Sault Ste. Marie is featured in this month's "Home Town" article, and the Sault branch of Michigan Tech is pictured and described in the July school article.

The work of the U. P. Development Bureau is told in a writeup about the Lure Book published by the bureau. The subaqueous highway under the Straits of Mackinac, advanced by a Menominee engineer, is outlined in maps and charts. A full page of poetry features the work of Stellanova Osborn, daughter of former Governor Chase S. Osborn, of the Sault. The issue also carries a short article by Osborn about fishing in St. Mary's River.

A regular feature of The Hiawathian is "Shore Lines," a section of reviews and comment about U. P. books and writers. The July number reviews "Bay Milt" (about Escanaba) and "Boom Copper" (about the Keweenaw Peninsula). Bill Nault, the outdoors writer from Ishpeming, has another fishing tale, called "Next Time!" about trials and tribulations along the Escanaba River.

"Nine Girls in a Boat" tells the fun the girls enjoyed on a chartered boat trip to Isle Royale, and makes the reader want to follow suit. The "Speak U. P." section reprints editorials from U. P. newspapers, and letters received by the editor. And, of course, the full page Paul Bunyan cartoon is present again.

State representatives: Alger, district; David F. Morrison, Germfask, Republican (incumbent).

Delta district—Roy Jensen, Republican, incumbent; Einar Erlandsen, A. T. Rossow and Myron Legg, Democrats.

Dickinson district: Walter F. Bagley, Wilson, Republican; Hugh K. Cavill, Menominee, Republican; James Goulette, Republican (incumbent); Romeo Guinnunzio, Norway; Guido D. Valenti, Iron Mountain, Democrat.

Gogebic district: John E. McNicholas, Marquette, Republican; Leo C. Anderson, Ironwood, Democrat; Louis M. Ezzino, Wakefield, Democrat, (incumbent).

Houghton district: Harry Hermann, Laurium, Republican, (incumbent); Frederick Kappler, Lake Linden, Democrat.

Iron district: Carl G. Lindquist, Iron River, Republican, (incumbent). Albert H. Baehr, Rte. 1, Bates, Democrat.

Vigilance Of A Newspaper

OCCASIONALLY a newspaper finds an obligation in its business of public service to step beyond the normal bounds of printing and interpreting the news for its readers. Sometimes a newspaper actually creates news by private investigation of unsavory conditions that law enforcement officers, neglecting their own duty, not only allow to exist but help to create through connivance with racketeers.

Such a condition has developed in Milwaukee, where the Milwaukee Journal is doing an excellent job of public service by disclosure of widespread gambling and policy racketeering. The Journal has carried on a private investigation of gambling conditions in Milwaukee since March. Disclosures of the results of the investigation show that policy racketeering is on the increase in Milwaukee, that the racket is a million dollar a month deal, that police have done virtually nothing to stamp out racketeering. Further, the investigation disclosed an apparent alliance between police and the racketeers.

The Journal's investigation revealed that the policy gamblers are not only cheating in their deals with the suckers who play the numbers, but that they also are cheating on their state income tax returns.

The information obtained by the Milwaukee Journal could have been secured by the Milwaukee police department, of course, but the police department chose to ignore the conditions that exist. It has been proved time and time again in many cities of the country that organized racketeering cannot exist without the protection of the police.

The Journal's disclosures have prompted a public demand for action. A John Doe investigation is now under way, launched by the district attorney's office in Milwaukee.

No one can be certain what developments may be expected as a result of the inquiry. There may be indictments, or there may be a whitewash.

One thing is sure. The Milwaukee public has been apprised of the unsavory conditions that exist in their community, thanks to the vigilance of a newspaper that was not afraid to do a duty to the people of Milwaukee that the police forces should have done but failed to do.

That is one of the benefits that accrue to the people under the American system of freedom of the press.

Blood Donors Needed

THE RED CROSS blood plasma clinic will be conducted in Escanaba next week, July 26-28, and a large number of volunteer donors are needed to make the program successful.

The blood plasma program is one of the outstanding advancements of medical science. It provides life-giving substance to hundreds of persons in occasions of emergency. Countless lives have been saved as a result of the blood plasma banks established by the Red Cross. Some of the very persons who donate a pint of blood at the clinic here next week may later be the recipients of their own generosity.

The traffic safety campaign has used a significant slogan, "The life you save may be your own." It is equally appropriate in the Red Cross blood plasma program.

During the war the blood collection program gained tremendous impetus and great quantities of plasma were secured for military and civilian errands of mercy. After the war, however, donors became more reluctant to give blood. This condition, which still exists, is unfortunate because the need is great.

All persons in good health between the ages of 18 and 50, weighing over 115 pounds, are eligible to donate blood. You'll be doing a worthwhile service to your community—perhaps even to yourself—if you contribute a pint of blood to the plasma program during the clinic next week. Contact the Red Cross office for an appointment card and instructions.

Draft Setup Is Shaping

REGISTRATIONS for the resumption of military draft will begin August 30 for persons born in 1929 and registrations will continue daily, except Sundays and holidays until Sept. 18 when the registration of all persons in the 19-26 age group will have been completed. Thereafter boys reaching the age of 18 will register on their 18th birthday or within five days thereafter.

Major General Lewis Hershey, who headed the selective service organization during the war, has been appointed as head of the peacetime draft, the appointment of local draft boards is expected shortly after which board clerks will be selected and the organization completed for the draft procedure.

General Hershey has already indicated that the first draft calls will probably be aimed at 25 year olds, apparently with the thought in mind of tapping that manpower

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—The struggle now going on in Berlin is defined in the news in terms of naked power. Almost nothing is said about an element that may actually weigh as heavy in the scales as the hundreds of planes that are keeping open a precarious link with the west.

That element is the extraordinary courage of the Germans in Berlin and particularly the courage of the Social-Democratic leaders who refused to surrender to Nazism and now are defying another organized tyranny.

They have rejected all blandishments while at the same time have stood up to coercion and threats of terror and torture.

These men and women can have no illusions. They have been through the political wars. They have known the barbarism of the 20th century in its most terrible forms. And they know that failure of the western powers to hold the bastion of Berlin would mean death or slave-labor camps for thousands upon thousands.

HARD TO COMBAT REDS

One of the major weaknesses of this country's Germany policy is the failure to work with these people on a realistic basis. That failure may have a greater bearing on the final outcome than is realized here.

According to reports reaching Washington, the Russians may be planning the kind of coup that would be difficult or impossible to combat. There are indications that they may use German Communists trained in their sector to seize power from the non-Communist Germans in the sectors held by the western powers.

Such a coup would present the western allies with a most-awkward dilemma. To prevent the seizure of power they would have to intervene in what would seem to be a German civil war. Such intervention would create far-reaching difficulties, if indeed it were possible at all.

Complicating this threat is the fact that the German police administration, which theoretically unifies police authority in the sectors of the four nations, has been rigged by the Communists. American authorities apparently failed to see the significance in this setup.

The police several times recently have allowed Communists to surround non-Communist political meetings. On one such occasion Social - Democratic leaders were trapped inside a hall while outside thousands of Communists screamed "traitor" and threatened momentarily to break in.

At the height of the rioting, one of the trapped leaders managed to telephone to an American who had shown a friendly interest. The American promptly telephoned to U. S. military authorities to urge that a rescue party be sent to the hall. The buck was passed from one office to another until it was finally decided that the Americans had no authority to intervene. Pressure, however, was put on the Berlin police and, reluctantly, they dispersed the Communist bands. The non-Communists then left the hall without fear of being molested.

This is a small-scale example of what carefully trained Communist stooges might do in Berlin. Willing and even eager stooges are available, among them many former Nazis who are familiar with the techniques of street fighting and assassination.

DON'T UNDERSTAND NEEDS

The machine of American military occupation operates on a level far above the German people. Between the two there is at best a formal relationship defined by orders, directives, memoranda. The army mind at the top is simply not geared to an understanding of the intangibles involved in the fierce political currents that are boiling so close to the surface in Germany.

The weakness exemplified in Germany is by no means confined to that trouble zone. It extends throughout our policy abroad. It is primarily a failure to understand the needs and desires and hopes of people as distinguished from governments.

In the long tradition of U. S. foreign policy, U. S. diplomats' chief responsibility was to establish good relations with the government in power in the country to which they were assigned. That is not enough today. Such an attitude leaves the door wide open for Communism.

One of the vital considerations in the American position in Berlin is the reaction of millions of Germans who accepted at face value the assurances that the western powers would stay. An emergency plan is ready under which some 2,000 Germans—Social-Democratic and other leaders—would be removed from Berlin in the event that the west is forced to surrender this island outpost. But that would not cushion the shock—and the shock, it should be added, would not be confined to Germany. It would be felt throughout the world.

and other sources: Irving Fig Newton; Dr. Royal Payne; Mary Love Gee; Paul A. Quintance; Dagine Soiland. She also reports these unusual first names: Verbal; Flotilla; Chatty; Telephus; Diassada; Rygmhr (sorry, I won't try to pronounce the last one).

C. Aubrey Smith, one of the great stars of stage and screen, writes from Beverly Hills about the name Irene: "So many folk say eye-REEN. Do remind them of the Greek word eirene, 'peace,' with both 'es' as long as ladders—eye-REE-nee."

The pronunciation eye-REE-nee for Irene (the Latin spelling) is the classic pronunciation, and is customary in Great Britain. But in American usage the name has long been established as eye-REEN.

Are you uncertain about the pronunciations of such words as a schedule, graduate, picture, feature? If so, Mr. Colby's leaflet on pronunciation, C-18, will help you. ## Gad, What Tremendous Enthusiasm

Ruark's Views

By Bob Ruark

New York—We have recently moved from a neighborhood which was too rich for my blood to a little dirty dead-end street in Greenwich village, and it has been a howling success. Already I have waged—and lost—a battle with the neighbors.

That is what I like about the village. People seem to enjoy fighting. In the midtown east-side, they just sneer at each other and maybe kick each other's French poodles. Down here they holler and cuss and belt each other in the eye. The edged wit is not practiced, and there is no dainty dueling.

For example, I was playing the typewriter with the window open the other morning, about 2 a. m., and it probably sounded like a team of draft horses clattering over a tin bridge. Loudmouthed dame across the court stuck her head out of the window and belted me.

"Shut off that thisandthat typewriter!"

"Aw, drop dead," said I, ever the little gentleman.

"Muzzle that suchandso machine or I call the theseseandthose cops," remarked this demure bundle of fluff, in a voice easily audible in Newark.

"Call the theseseandthose cops," said I, continuing to pound.

And the Cops Came

So she called the cops. The cops came. They flashed a light into the office window. I made a rude remark about cops who flash lights into the office windows of sober, industrious citizens. We then have a fine argument on civil liberties, the result of which is still pending.

It seems to me that a man who is working in his own home on a hot night has just as much right to run a mill with the windows open, say, as a drunk has the right to bawl obscenities on the sidewalk at 3 a. m. This was a nightly circumstance back on 54th street, as Bill's Gay Nineties regurgitated its boozy customers. The bawlers cursed and screamed and the drunks hollered and bickered, but no cops ever came.

Down here in the village the lushes litter the streets, and the happily married people battle into the dawn, and the radios blare and the lovers quarrel and make up on the sidewalks. We have just had a religious festival in which they touched off blockbust-sized firecrackers, until it sounded like London during the blitz. There is a garish carousel running around the corner. And there are at least five million love-starved cats.

In my vicinity there is a pent-up Thomas cat with six lady friends scattered around the block. This animal has a set of vocal chords to rival Caruso's. He talks to his womenfolk all night long, and they answer him. He sings a different ballad to each according to the depth of his emotion. From sunset to rise, this ardent addled beast yowls, and his screams are duplicated over a square mile, so that it is almost like living in a jungle.

We have one neighbor who throws pails of hot water on people. We have another who plays nothing but Italian opera recordings for hours. We have a piano player. We have an endless parade of panhandlers and bums and

So They Say

We are drifting from pillar to post, and if we would avert war Secretary Marshall must be replaced without delay.—Rep. Harold Knutson (R.) of Minnesota.

Third parties may come and third parties may go, but the CIO-PAC must keep living on forever.—Philip Murray, president, CIO.

slummers. They all enrich the general din.

It's Free Country

Now I claim the right to hit a typewriter as my contribution to the babel. I have as much right to clatter the keys as a man has to own tomcats with delusions of Tito Schipa. I am every bit as good as a panhandler full of canned heat; every bit as good as a fancier of Italian opera; every bit as good as a firecracker shooter, as a piano player, as a merry-go-round operator, or a lady who profanely drenches passersby with steaming water. I pay taxes; I got rights.

So I intend to slap those keys until 5 a. m., if I desire, with the window open, if I wish, because it is hot in the summer and I earn my oats with an Underwood. I will write columns, novels, short stories, biographies, poems, magazine articles, radio scripts, plays and dirty limericks, if I feel in the mood for it. And the next con to show up around here gets the hotwater treatment. Not from the lady next door, either.

Clatter-clatter-bang crash the quick brown fox jumped over the lazy dog now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party. Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers! They'll never take me alive!

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington. — Herbert Bayard Swope, editor of the old New York World, has some backhanded advice for Dixie Democrats who consider bolting Truman in the electoral college.

Swope, chosen for the electoral college from New York in 1936, tells how the electors met in a lavishly draped room, reminiscent of early Grecian meeting places. Each elector had an embossed and engraved ballot to be deposited in a Grecian urn. An air of great solemnity pervaded the gathering.

In the middle of this impressive ceremony, Swope suddenly turned to Democratic Governor Herbert Lehman.

"I think I'll use this opportunity to go down in history," he remarked. "I'll cast my vote for Herbert Hoover. It has never happened before. If I do it here, my place will be secure in the history books."

The humorless Lehman nearly fainted. Beckoning to Ed Flynn, then secretary of state of New York and head of the New York electors, he warned:

"Ed, Swope here is about to do something terrible. You have got to prevent it at all costs. He is going to cast his vote for Hoover."

"Who is to say that I can't?" replied Swope, basking gayly in the pleasure of the prospect of making history. "What law will I be defying? Am I not a duly elected elector. It is my right as a duly elected elector to vote as I see fit."

"Relax, Herbert," Flynn told Governor Lehman. "He can vote any way he wants. But don't worry. If he votes for Hoover, I won't count it."

MERRY-GO-ROUND

The big, bold state of Texas is in the throes of a hot primary battle including, among other things, the question of who will replace that noted flour salesman, Senator "Pappy" O'Daniel. . . Congressman Lyndon Johnson, the ex-Navy veteran, is making a strong bid. . . He's the man who put Truman right on the spot when he discovered that the government was serenely selling its war plants at the very same time it was worrying about another war. . . A lot of outside money has been flooding Congressman Wright Patman's district to try to defeat him—most of it put up by the real estate interests in Houston. Patman is the Texan who fought hardest for public housing. . . Housing is a hot subject in various congressional districts, including Dallas, where Bill Cooper, a decorated campaign veteran who enlisted in the Army at $21 a month, is exposing the anti-housing record of Congressman Frank Wilson. Wilson calls the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill "socialistic"—perhaps because he isn't a veteran. . . Once again the power lobby is trying to defeat pillar-of-the-party Sam Rayburn — (revenge against his fight for rural electrification and the holding company act). . . Despite being fairly busy at Philadelphia, Sam has found time to help get 25 Democratic congressmen on the "discharge petition" to force Republicans on the rules committee to vote the T-E-W housing bill out of its pigeonhole. Sam says he's made it a practice never to sign a discharge petition, but he's been working backstage to get housing over the hump. The Republicans may be surprised when they come back next Monday. . . Another vet congressional candidate who has been plugging housing is live-wire Creekmore Fath of Austin who studied the housing shortage under War Mobilizer Jimmie Byrnes in Washington.

FOSTER FATHER WANTS HELP

Attorney General Tom Clark is looking for 300 part-time fathers to help take care of his wayward boys.

No ordinary job of baby sitting, Clark's idea is to give each kid at the federal reformatory a sponsor, thus help to guide the boys back on the straight-and-narrow. Clark has some 350 kids under his wing—all convicted of federal offenses and serving time at Washington's national training school for boys. He has taken a personal interest in their cases, but can't give individual attention to each boy—although he will listen to anyone complaining of a "bum rap."

For a closer, heart-to-heart approach, Clark is trying to recruit individual sponsors. Since he worked out the idea two months ago, he has already rounded up 70 foster fathers through civic organizations. Each is responsible for one boy, must visit the boy at least twice a month and take him on an outing once a month. It is up to the sponsor to bring his charge back into society, first, by teaching; then by working for his parole; and finally, by finding him a job in a proper environment.

The attorney general also has appealed to several exclusive boys' schools to take in boys from the reformatory on scholarships. The plan is to withhold their identity, but give them the same break as boys who came from more fortunate environments. The first youngster to enter such a school under this plan is now receiving private tutoring at the reformatory, and will be quietly admitted to the school this autumn.

Note: Largely because of improper training at reformatories, three-fourths of America's criminals started out as juvenile delinquents and stuck to crime.

HOT-WEATHER POLITICS

Virginia's Senator Byrd and Governor William Tuck walked out on the Democratic convention—but only to get a breath of fresh air. But, forgetting to bring along their coats which contained their convention badges and credentials, the two prominent Virginians were not permitted to return. Thus, the Virginia delegation was left leaderless throughout the nominations for vice president while Byrd and Tuck argued with convention doormen. . . Maryland's Senator Millard Tydings pulled wires against President Truman at the Philadelphia convention.

We need have no fear of anybody if we will stay unified behind the great principles that have made this country what it is today. —Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Deltans To Attend 4-Day Mess School At Camp Grayling

Michigan's National Guardsmen are going to be well fed at the annual encampment at Camp Grayling August 7 to 21.

Sgt. Francis St. Cyr and Private Robert Beauchamp, of Escanaba, will be among 200 mess personnel who will precede the main body of troops from 40 communities in Michigan to Camp Grayling. They will attend a food service school starting August 3.

Subjects to be included in the study of mess management are vitamin and calorie needs of the soldier, types of rations, preparation of food, storage and handling of food, meat cutting, baking, use and care of field equipment, use of left-over food and sanitation.

The school will continue until August 6, when mess personnel will prepare for the arrival of other troops. In contrast to last summer, hot meals will be waiting for the other Guardsmen when they reach the camp August 7.

While at camp, the soldiers will consume 116,340 pounds of meat, 49,598 pounds of bread, 64,049 quarts of milk and 1,217 gallons of ice cream during the camp period.

Over 15,000 Auto Plates Sold Here

A total of 15,425 license plates for passenger cars, trucks and trailers have been sold at the Escanaba branch office of the Michigan Department of State, it was revealed here today by Bill Ranguette, manager.

For passenger cars, 8,166 licenses have been issued. This figure represents an increase of 322 over the sale at this time last year, and is, of course, way over the figures for the war years.

Commercial truck licenses totaled 3572; farm trucks, 2587 and trailers, 110.

License plates will go on sale at half-price in the Escanaba office on Sept. 1, and no sooner.

No Cause For Alarm Seen in High Prices

Philadelphia (AP)—Spiraling prices which pose a serious threat to the nation's economy were predicted for the remainder of 1948 by the Federal Reserve Bank here.

While the bank's economists found no cause for immediate alarm over future price increases their mid-year review of the business outlook left little doubt the consumers would feel the brunt of such rises.

"Economic balance has not been

Following his discharge he was employed at St. Clair Shores where he taught chemistry and physics in the Detroit suburban area.

Bug Experts Fail To Find Cloth That Is Skeeter-Proof

Washington, (AP)—Government people who counted thousands of mosquito bites jotted down these vital statistics on their scratch pads:

1. Mosquitoes scored only five hits in 1,000 dive bombing attacks on a human target clothed in an Army field jacket.

2. But the pesky things broke through 690 times in 1,000 strikes against light Navy nylon opposition.

3. After testing 56 kinds of clothing materials, the Agricultural department's entomologists (bug and insect specialists) came to the sad conclusion that no cloth is skeeter-proof.

"We are likely to have more fever before the year is over—and the more we have the more vulnerable our economy becomes."

More Reds Plot U. S. Overthrow Than Conspired To Take Russia

75,000 Known To Have Taken Communist Oath

(Second of a series revealing, for the first time, the full extent of Communism in the U. S., and the strategy for domination of North America.)

By DON CAMERON
(Special to the Escanaba Daily Press)

How strong are the Communists in North America? Some 75,000 in the United States are known to have taken the oath of allegiance to their ideological fatherland, the Soviet Union, and to have embraced Marxist-Leninist principles of violent revolution as interpreted by World Leader Joseph V. Stalin. A drive for new members is under way and the official Daily Worker predicts an additional 15,000 will be recruited chiefly from among disgruntled voters in the current presidential campaign.

The present membership scales down to the approximate figure of one Communist for every 1,867 people in the country, which at first glance appears to be rather an insignificant showing. It is hardly more impressive when viewed against the world total of 18,000,000 Communists, of whom 6,000,000 are the elite of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. It means, or seems to mean, that only one out of every 240 Communists in the global scene works from within for the overthrow of this nation, which stands first in power and wealth and fourth in population.

360,000 Conspirators
Seems to mean—for statistics such as these will not answer our question. In matters having to do with Communists there always is more, much more, than meets the casual eye.

Proportionately, the United States has a larger party of Communists plotting to wreck her political and economic machinery than Russia had in that grim October of 1917 when 80,000 Bolsheviks made themselves the absolute masters of a sprawling hodgepodge of peasant states destined to give the rest of the world nightmares in years to come.

Moreover, the United States, with upwards of 70 per cent of the continental population, contains only about 21 per cent of the visible Red strength in North America, Canada, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean island republics have between them around 285,000 Communists, working tirelessly and often effectively to further Soviet aims in their respective spheres.

So mutually interdependent are the economic welfare and military defense requirements of the United States and her neighbor nations, and so effectively do their Communist leaders cooperate, that it is proper to consider North American Communism, in its revolutionary aspect, as a joint subversive movement in which 360,000 first-line conspirators participate.

Canada, which probably would be the No. 2 Man's Land of a war with Russia, has 25,000 of them in the Labor-Progressive Party, successor to the outlawed Communist Party of Canada. On the basis of proportional population they are four times as strong as United States Communists, and Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King considers them a grave threat to Dominion security.

ons and cooperate with Soviet secret agents and United States Reds in the Canal Zone. Northward, in Nicaragua, the 2,000 members of the Socialist (Communist) Party have been quiescent of late. Communist parties are illegal in Guatemala, Honduras, and El Salvador, and there is little evidence that the several hundred Reds operating underground in those countries are making much headway.

Threat From South
Because of the importance of hemisphere solidarity in case of war, it is needful also to look farther south, where out of a population of 100,000,000 South America has about 300,000 bitterly "antiyanqui" Communists, who have made trouble in the past and assuredly will make more in the future.

Brazil's Communist Party of 130,000 members, in a population of 47,000,000 is the largest and most violent. President Eurico Gaspar Dutra, who wants to suppress the Reds, calls them "masters in practicing sabotage," pointing to assaults on government officials, fatal explosions in army ammunition depots and fires in military barracks as proof.

Chile ranks next, with 50,000 Communists out of 6,000,000 people. Here, also, the government of President Gabriel Gonzalez is trying to break the power of the Reds, who are fighting back vivacious sabotage.

In these two countries and in Colombia—where 3,000 Communists last April led a delay and destructive uprising—diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union have been severed to deprive the revolutionary forces of Russian support. In all three nations there is the possibility of full-scale revolution in the near future and the certainty of minor uprisings and large-scale sabotage.

In Paraguay, where 8,000 Communists are active underground despite the outlawing of their party, and in Bolivia, where the Party of the Revolutionary Left (IPR) denies affiliation with world Communism yet hews to the international party line, there is the likelihood of serious trouble. Peru, Venezuela and Ecuador have been the scenes of recent disturbances which may be repeated. Only in Argentina, with 30,000 Communists, and Uruguay, with 15,000, do the prospects seem peaceful.

Militant Five Million
But again we have been dealing with statistics which reveal only part of the truth. It is the invisible and unwritten roster of the Communist army that tells the story of its strength, and here we must resort to sweeping estimates.

Dimitri Manuisky, Ukrainian foreign minister and representative to the United Nations Assembly, was for many years the foremost coordinator of the activities of Communist parties throughout the world. Reporting on Communists in North America at the eighteenth congress of the party of the Soviet Union in 1939, he asserted that for every party member there was "a following of militant workmen to carry on activities under the guidance of the party" of from 15 to 20 persons.

Using Manuisky's lesser figure we get a total of 5,400,000 Communist supporters in North America, or one for each 37 presumably non-subversive individuals. The total for the United States would be 1,125,000, or one for each 124 people.

Very likely these are outside figures, but they could be reduced and still retain formidable proportions. A million "militant" pro-Communists, acting "under the guidance of the party," would seem to be the equivalent of a million bona fide Communists in everything except the possession of party membership cards.

Nor can we afford to overlook the contributory support given by other millions of voluntary and involuntary party-liners, even though most of them may not be especially militant. We know that 2,000,000 trade and labor union members affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations follow the lead of a small minority of Communist and pro-

Communist officers, although the great majority of them do not in any measure subscribe to the Red program for smashing the free-enterprise system upon which the western world has been built.

We know, further, that unions comprising about as many workers stand on the borderline, with the balance of power so slightly in favor of a moderate leadership that the least pressure of unfavorable events could tilt it the other way.

Add to these the uncounted millions who, usually with the best of intentions, join camouflaged Communist front organizations, contributing money to worthy-sounding causes and sign petitions indiscriminately, and we begin to glimpse the significant truth—that the greatest strength of Communism lies not so much in its numbers of Red activists as in the skill with which they can

Young Couple Takes
$7,300 Radio Award
After Much Coaxing

Huntington, W. Va., (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Adams threw in the towel Tuesday in their bout with $7,300 in radio quiz prize money. They finally accepted it from the Mutual Broadcasting Co.

But it took a proposition by the mayor, insistence by a representative of the radio network that it was the Adamses' "legal obligation," and a lot of other promises before they would agree. Edward Lee, Mutual official, handed over a certified check for the amount at a conference in the studios of the network's local outlet (WPLH). It ended a two-day struggle to have the young couple accept. They had refused the money because they had been "hounded to death" by well-wishers and salesmen of everything from cemeteries to motor scooters.

Blamed For Many
Motor Mishaps

Slippery pavement is blamed for an epidemic of motor mishaps on Highway U. S. 2 Tuesday and Wednesday morning a car driven by Francis Jewett, of Geneva, Ill., was slowed down and a moment later was hit in the rear by a car driven by George Severt of Marquette. About an hour later, at the same spot, George Budinger slowed his car and was struck in the rear by a car driven by Howard Hamblin, of Peck. No one was hurt. The state police had no data as to the amount of damage done. The road was particularly slippery at this point.

The Emperor Charlemagne adopted in 799 the present-day calendar, based on the birth of Christ.

In the same vicinity just before noon Wednesday, a car driven by George Slocum of Grand Rapids, swerved on slippery paving, ran into the ditch and turned over. Taken to the hospital here it was found that Slocum had broken his arm.

In the Garden Corners vicinity there were two accidents of a similar nature. About 11:15 Wednesday morning a car driven by Francis Jewett, of Geneva, Ill., was slowed down and a moment later was hit in the rear by a car driven by George Severt of Marquette. About an hour later, at the same spot, George Budinger slowed his car and was struck in the rear by a car driven by Howard Hamblin, of Peck. No one was hurt. RED TAPE HOLDS
UP HOSPITALFederal Grant Will Soon
Be In The Clear

The long awaited Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital will, in the not very distant future, become a reality.

Ever since the announcement early in the month that federal aid, in the amount of $140,400 had been approved. The committee has been conferring with the State Hospital Survey and Construction department complying with the necessary requirements that will make the funds available.

able. There have been many petty, time taking items of red tape to dispose of in the meantime but the committee is hopeful that all of these details will be disposed of in a few weeks.

A. J. Cayia, chairman of the local hospital committee, deems it advisable that those who have pledged financial support to the hospital have these funds available for collection as they may be called upon shortly.

The hospital here, according to the plans of St. Clair Pardee, will be a general hospital of 32 beds and will cost approximately $421,000. Bonds to meet about one third of the cost of construction of the project were approved in a special election more than a year ago. Another $100,000 was raised by popular subscription. Construction has been held up awaiting the federal grant which was applied for at the time the popular subscription drive was launched.

COMPENSATION
HEARING ENDSCase Ruling May Come
In About Thirty Days

Testimony in the compensation hearing involving claims of the employees of Inland Lime & Stone struction has been held up awaiting the federal grant which was applied for at the time the popular subscription drive was launched.

The construction contract will be considered immediately after the federal grant is in the clear.

Company came to a close early Wednesday afternoon.

The employees, members of Local 377 of the Mine, Mill and Smelters Union, C. I. O., are asking unemployment compensation for the period when the plant was shut down because of a labor dispute and that the compensation claim is invalid. Michael D. O'Hara, referee for the Michigan Unemployment Commission, presided at the hearing.

Action on the hearing is not expected for at least thirty days as the stenographic transcripts must be prepared and then reviewed by the Commission. Both sides, it is expected will also file rebuttal briefs for presentation.

'Marse Joe' M-i-i-ghty Happy; His Bosox Have Caught The Pesky Yanks

By Jack Hand
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Joe McCarthy finally has taught the New York Yankees, the club his Boston Red Sox consider "the team to beat" for the American league flag.

By winning a day-night doubleheader from lowly Chicago while New York and Cleveland were splitting a pair, the Red Sox last night moved into a third-place tie with the world champs.

While the Yanks and Indians wrestle on the Yankee stadium turf for two more days Boston has a golden chance to gain more ground in its continued series with the White Sox. Only 3½ games back today, Boston can be in a position to challenge for the lead Saturday when Lou Boudreau's Indians move into Fenway park.

McCarthy must have been encouraged, too, by the relief win of Tex Hughson, the tall Texan who has been lost to the team most of the season.

Gang Up On Tribe
Hughson came in to pitch the ninth inning of last night's game with Chicago, picking up the verdict when the Red Sox rallied for three runs in the last of the ninth to take a 10-9 edge. They had won the afternoon half by a 3-1 score for Joe Dobson's 12th success.

Mele's Timely Hits Give Red Sox Double Win Over White Sox

Boston, July 22 (AP)—With Sam Mele slugging a timely homer and double, the Boston Red Sox pulled out a 10-9 win over the Chicago White Sox in the arclight end of a day-night doubleheader that coupled with their 3-1 afternoon decision, put the Red Sox into a third place tie with the New York Yankees, the team they figure they have to beat for the pennant.

Hogan and Mangrum Renew Golfing Duel

Reading, Pa., July 22 (AP)—Ben Hogan and Lloyd Mangrum brought their duel for golf's money winning honors down to the Berkshire Country Club's long fairways and well trapped greens today in the first round of the $15,000 Reading Open tournament.

Nearly 150 other top ranking pros and amateurs also have entered the four-day tourney but Hogan, U. S. Open and PGA titlist, and the long-hitting Mangrum are favored.

Mangrum went into the tournament setting the pace financially. He has won $20,421.99, passing the former Texas mite from nearby Hershey, Pa., in last week's Dapper Dan play at Pittsburgh. Hogan's earnings total $20,197.56.

Dutch Harrison won last year with a seven under par 277. Frankie Stranahan, leading amateur from Toledo, Ohio, Demaret and Ed Oliver tied for runner-up honors with 280s.

Members of the winning team of the first half, the Martins, captained by Harry Needham, will have a free dinner Monday night. Roy Starrin captains the losing team, the Coys.

The Escanaba Golf club twilight league will compete Monday instead of Tuesday next week because of the Upper Peninsula women's golf tournament here. This will be the start of the second half.

Members of the winning team of the first half, the Martins, captained by Harry Needham, will have a free dinner Monday night. Roy Starrin captains the losing team, the Coys.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Cuff notes: Too bad the all-star softball program was rained out at Memorial Field last night. . . . The softball populace was keyed up for a real show, and such it would have been. . . . Reno Beck, local softball impresario, says the same program will be held at Memorial next Wednesday.

While on the subject of all-star games, the Rainbow north-south all-star baseball clash will be held under lights at Negaunee Sunday night, August 8. . . . On July 30, northern division bigwigs will meet in Marquette and southern division bigwigs will convene in Gladstone to select their respective rosters. . . . George Mathison, Gladstone, Rainbow secretary, earnestly — yes, even fervently — appeals to Rainbow managers to send box scores in to him so that he may keep accurate league records. . . . So after you've phoned us at the Press, shoot the box scores in to George.

Radio announcers in the National Football league will have a lot of fun next season with this fellow: One Arthur "Choo Choo" Macoszyk. . . . He's a Polish professional football player with Philadelphia and in his spare time, he fancies pigeons. . . . That is to say, he's a pigeon fancier. . . . Yes, you guessed it! He hails from Hamtramck.

Gerald Harris, Escanaba St. Joe athlete, is still gnashing his teeth after scoring a 35 at Highland with a three-over-par seven on the ninth and last hole. . . . Ouch, that hurt! . . . Ray Hirn, erstwhile Escanaba high athlete, had the chance of his life to break 70 at the Escanaba course yesterday. . . . He played the first nine in 34 with successive birdies on seven, eight and nine and came up to No. 8 the second time around needing par-par to finish with 35 for a 69. . . . He had a four-foot putt for a birdie three on No. 8 that would have permitted him to finish with a bogey five on the tough ninth for his 69. . . . But the four-footer curled off and he got the bogey five on No. 9 for a 70.

Nats End Tige Streak In Griffith Stadium; Masterson Is Master

Washington, July 22 (AP)—Successful yesterday in dissolving one of the Detroit Tigers' last lingering "streaks," the Washington Senators today faced the offerings of Hal Newhouse, who has won his last five games in a row.

Outhit 12 to 11 in the series opener, Washington thumped the Tigers 6 to 1 behind Walt Masterson's good clutch pitching, bringing to an end a Detroit sweep of six straight victories in Griffith Stadium this year.

But altogether they were successful in handing Freddie Hutchinson his third straight licking in a week, the Nats expected a tougher assignment as they squared off against Newhouse. Hal was shooting for his 15th triumph of the year and his sixth win in a row since the Cleveland Indians beat him 6 to 2 on June 29. Newhouse has faced the Senators twice this season and defeated them both times.

Hutchinson, who has finished only one of his seven starts since May 20, couldn't hang on again yesterday as the Washingtons belted him out of the box in the fifth inning with a four-hit uprising that meant the ball game.

Detroit stepped out in front 1-0 in the second on Pat Mullin's triple and Hal Wagner's single past second base, but couldn't go on from there. Although the Tigers shelled Masterson for a dozen hits they couldn't produce in the clutch and left 11 runners stranded.

Washington tied it up in the fourth on Eddie Yost's single and Ed Stewart's mighty triple to the left field wall, then went ahead to stay in the fifth.

Earl Wooten started it with a single to left and took second when Vic Wertz fumbled the ball. Masterson drove across what proved to be the winning run with a big three-bagger and then Yost drew a pass. After getting Al Kozar on strikes for the second out, Hutchinson yielded successive singles to Gil Coan and Stewart, each producing another run, and then gave way to Art Houtteman.

The race will start at the north end of Mackinac Island and will end at the state ferry dock at St. Ignace. Boats with attendants will accompany each swimmer and Coast Guard vessels will be on hand to lend assistance if needed.
